25X1 [redacted] SECRET

25X1 26. [redacted] Called J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Subcommittee on Internal Security, Senate Judiciary Committee, in response to his earlier call. He asked us to look into a recent book, "How to Spy on the United States" by Alexander Steele published by Arlington House. Steele claimed to be a KGB agent in the United States who had defected. I told him I would look into it and call him back.

25X1 27. [redacted] Called Guy McConnell, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, and advised that due to an NSC meeting on Wednesday which the Director must attend, we would have to postpone the briefing of the Intelligence Operations Subcommittee until next week. McConnell said he would get back in touch with me with a new date.

25X1 28. [redacted] Gordon Carlson, office of Representative John Breaux, called and said they would like to get two more copies of the paper "Potential Implications of Trends in World Population, Food Production and Climate." [redacted] is handling this.

STATOTHR

25X1 29. [redacted] Clark McFadden, General Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, called and asked if the Saturday NID could be returned to him tomorrow morning. [redacted] is taking care of this.

25X1 30. [redacted] Rachael Bostick, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, called and said the briefing by the Director on Thursday, 10 April, would have to be changed. She asked if the Director would be available on 15 April at 2:30. After checking with the Director's office, I confirmed 2:30 on 15 April before the Subcommittee on Arms Control, International Organizations, and Security Agreements in room S-116 of the Capitol.

25X1 31. [redacted] During the session with Chairman Lucien N. Nedzi, Special Subcommittee on Intelligence, House Armed Services Committee, on the sale of Intermountain, he raised the question as to the status of the briefing of the Subcommittee on proprietaries and I refreshed his memory that this had been scheduled a couple of times in the past but was scratched because of the press of Subcommittee business.
